Ravi, Jennifer and Chao,

I took a shot at considering the comments from Lynn and Kacee. In some places, I might prefer our original wording, but I figure if we can live with the changes we should do so, and take it as a signal that while we may have had a good reason for something (such as putting a phrase in quotes), that may not have been what our words and punctuations conveyed to others.

The one I am less inclined to take is:

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

I took a shot at redrafting the two sentences Lynn and Kacee flagged in second paragraph, on the theory that perhaps more words is less "elegant" but clearer. But, one of you might easily improve on that first take at revision... !

If we settle, then we can check with Kenny.

Hi all: I just cleared this through STICS but had a couple of edits. There is also one important place where I don't think the text is really clear. See what you think about that. I put notes in each place to explain my logic!

I am ccing Debra as the package goes to her next.
